Governor Eli H. Murray, of this city, has been chosen a member of the republican national committee for Utah.

It is said that from 50,000 to 60,000 sets of crop, 200,000 base ball bats and 200,000 base balls will be made for this season's trade by one firm in Chicago. Who says this country is reforming?

When the census enumerator called at a Roman Catholic founding asylum at Cincinnati, the Mother Superior refused to give the names of the women inmates, saying it was her sworn duty to shield them from publicity. She was arrested and fined, but the information was not obtained.

There appears to be some sort of secret understanding between the Cincinnati chief of police and the thieves of that city. This former publishes the following queer circular:

To thieves, pickpockets, or finders of property valuable to owners—During the time of the democratic convention in this city several pocket-books and memorandum books were lost, or stolen, some of which contained papers of value and importance to the owners, but utterly useless to any one else. Thieves or finders who will return any such articles to me will have proper appreciation and consideration should I ever have the honor of interviewing them in my official capacity.

R. T. CARSON, Superintendent of Police.

In New York Justice is getting even with at least one lawyer. His name is Henry A. Frost, and he has been in Ludlow street jail four years for debt. It seems, according to his own statement, that some of the methods familiar to the profession, are being applied to him. In a late application to Justice Pratt, for the appointment of a referee, Frost set forth that he was arrested under judgment obtained by fraud and deceit, and that the object of his arrest was to compel him to pay the judgment; that he has vainly sought relief through a writ of habeas corpus, and that the New York sheriff, through his employees, had evaded numerous writs. The justice denied the motion, and said that Frost's remedy was in a bill of review, or an application to be discharged as a poor debtor. It is just possible that Attorney Frost is being imposed upon by some of his brother lawyers, but he gets very little sympathy. If he has practiced much the chances are that he is now receiving retributive justice.

An effort is being made by the treasury department to check, if not wholly prevent, a system of swindling that has been successfully conducted for years past. Not a few ladies go to Europe every two or three years, chiefly for the purpose of replenishing their wardrobes, and they come home with valuable cargoes of silk, costly underwear, kid gloves, etc., all of which go through the custom house free. In some instances goods thus brought have been bought and paid for by merchants, whose wives were the smuggling tourists, and the articles have appeared in stores for sale. It is said this petty smuggling robs the department of a good many thousands of dollars in the course of a year, and to prevent it a new rule is to be enforced. Ladies will not be allowed to bring unmade dresses as part of their wardrobe, and articles of underwear that have not been washed and marked with the owner's name will not be admitted duty free. Gloves and hosiery must show that they have been tried on in order to avoid the payment of duty.

It is to be a variegated canvass that the Virginians are going to have this year. There are practically three political parties in the state—the conservative democrats, or "readjusters," who are in favor of paying the state debt honestly, dollar for dollar. (This is the regular democratic party); the republicans, who formerly worked with the readjusters, but have now dissolved the connection and perfected a regular and distinct party organization; and the "readjusters," or democrats who, under the leadership of General Mahone, are trying to repudiate the state debt. As the democrats, including both sections of the party, are largely in the majority in the state, and there is no alliance between either faction and the republicans, there ought to be no doubt as to how the state will be counted in the presidential election. However, there is some doubt, and it comes about in this manner: The honest democrats and the readjusters are for Hancock, but all vote for Hancock electors, but as the factions cannot agree upon the local debt question it is probable that two sets of democratic electors will be nominated and voted for; and this splitting up of the party vote may allow the republicans, though largely in the minority, to slip in with their electors. As some such foolishness has brought defeat to the democracy quite often in the past, the Virginians should have foregone enough to bury their local quarrel for the good of the nation. It is probable that Hancock will not need the eleven electoral votes of Virginia, but there is no sense in endangering the result through petty spite of men.

ABOUT THE best thing said of Gen. Hancock was spoken by Senator Bayard. He said: "If you ask me why I love Hancock, I say that because I know that with him the liberty of my country will be safe. He has proved it. His life is to-day the most brilliant example that we have among our military men. I do not say that there are none so brave, so able as he, but I do say that none have been so tried as he and proved himself to possess the lofty self-control which induced the laying down of power at the command of conscience. This is why I claim he should be sustained all over the land. It may be remarked that we have always talked against military power, and yet have taken up a military man. My answer is, we do so not because he is a military power. We admire his gallantry and honesty; but Hancock is not only a soldier, he is a man, a citizen, imbued with a knowledge of what citizenship should be in a government of laws."

THE SOUTH AFRICAN diamond mines are said to be steadily improving in both the quality and quantity of their products. The tawny complexion formerly found in the stones is now disappearing, and some of the purest and most valuable gems are now being taken out. The yield has been wonderful, one mine, the Rush, producing $15,000 a day. Another claim has yielded a clear profit to the owner within two years, of $225,000. About 800 pounds of diamonds, valued at $6,000,000, were sent by mail from the mines to Cape Town last year.

Postoffice Points.

Washington, 16.—Assistant Postmaster Bingham, at Philadelphia, has been designated by the bureau of Governor Hartranft to act as postmaster of that office until his successor is commissioned.

Judge Freeman, assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, has decided that where three or four class mail matter is deposited to the postoffice insufficiently prepaid, or where first-class matter is deposited without full rate, the postmaster should not forward; but if by inadvertency, it is forwarded, the postmaster at the office of delivery should only collect the postage remaining unpaid. He also decides that if first, third or fourth-class matter be deposited in the postoffice without any prepaid amount it should be held, but if forwarded by mistake the amount collected upon delivery should be double the postage which should have been prepaid.

MacMahon in Gloom.

London, 16.—A Paris correspondent, describing the ceremony at Long Champs, on the 14th, says: "Of the old faces which became notorious or celebrated in official regions when Bonapartism and moral order were paramount, few showed themselves at review. One of the few was Marshal MacMahon. Another, Marshal MacMahon, was expected and a place was reserved for him, but he did not come to occupy it. Harassed by creditors and by the reproaches of old friends, and grieved at the blow which had been inflicted on the order, he has become out of sorts and seen life in its gloomiest colors. It is said he attempted last week to advance to the point from which Hamlet recoiled, and that the sombre idea taken hold of him, which is the cause of profound anxiety and affliction to his family."

CROP REPORTS.

WHEAT.

Washington, 16.—The condition of the cat crop shows some improvement since the June report, and is now ninety-six against ninety-three in June. New England and the middle states report a high condition, but from Delaware to the Gulf the condition is very low, except in portions of Texas, where the average is high. Tennessee reports only a percentage of eighty-four owing to the drought. Kansas and Nebraska, from the same cause, report only eighty-four in the former and sixty-three in the latter.

POTATOES.

In all sections of the country prospects are good for a full crop of potatoes. There has been no change in the area planted in potatoes in the whole country, the deficit of one portion being counterbalanced by the increase in another. The condition of the crop is very favorable, fully as good as in 1879. In all the south Atlantic states the condition of the crop is rather below that of last year, while the western and southwestern states are reported above.

WOOL.

Washington, 16.—All the states show a wool clip equal to or greater than last year's except New Hampshire and California. Kansas reports an increase of 42 per cent, and Nebraska 15. A vast increase in the territories is indicated by the reports received amounting to 20 per cent. In Texas alone 15 per cent. increase is reported.

FRUIT.

In apples, a full average condition is reported everywhere, excepting in the Southern Atlantic and Gulf states, where there is falling off. The reports show the condition of the peach crop about the same as that of apples, a full average excepting on the Pacific Coast where the prospect are not very good. The grape crop is reported favorably in all localities as having enjoyed better conditions of growth so far than either apples or peaches.

FOREIGN.

The Indians displayed in a body, taking their guns, arms and ammunition and went in the direction of Zambiar. General Brown crossed the Helmand River, overtook and routed the deserters. They killed 200 of the deserters and recovered the guns and baggage. Sher Ali's cavalry and his officers remained faithful. Mohamed Jan and Nuss Kelo, it is stated, have gone to Candahar.

London, 16.—Chapier dispatches from Constantinople convey the intelligence that the Sultan is greatly perplexed over serious palace intrigues, and signifies a willingness to abdicate.

The House of Commons, in committee of the whole, to-night, resumed consideration of the compensation for disturbance bill. Gladstone moved an amendment, of which he gave notice on Monday last, viz, that the last clause of the bill shall read as follows: "And tenants shall be entitled to compensation in the discretion of the county court judge, if the non-payment of rent is caused by the prevailing distress, and the tenant is willing to continue in occupation upon reasonable terms, as to rent, arrears of rent, and otherwise, and such terms are recommended by the landlord without reasonable alternative." Parnell moved to add after the word "alternative" the following: "Comprising just and reasonable terms as to rent, arrears of rent, and otherwise, to the incoming tenant, if any." Gladstone objected.

THE WALLACE COMMITTEE.

Davenport Tells a Hard Story About New York Naturalizations.

New York, 16.—Before the Wallace senatorial committee, to-day, Jan. J. Davenport, supervisor of elections, continued his testimony in regard to the manner in which Judge McCann conducted the naturalization business. The proceedings were conducted in an irregular manner, and a kind of mock court held. Witnesses gave the names of men who had been naturalized before being in the country six weeks. The witness said the number of persons who registered on fraudulent certificates in '76 was 10,000; and in 1878 it was reduced to 3,200. Of these only about 1,300 voted, and he would have presented them if he could. He denied conducting the affairs of his office in any partisan manner, and in fact, had been accused by the republicans of favoritism. Davenport mentioned the name of Patrick Goff, whom he said appeared as a witness for persons desiring to be naturalized in 1,000 cases. Certificates were sold in blank to applicants for naturalization, and they were charged from 50c. to $2. Four hundred of these papers were taken in one day by Goff to King's County. Many of the blanks were also taken to the river counties for sale and in Saratoga County 400 were offered for sale. Davenport then continued and read from a number of records of the supreme and superior courts to show that the certificates issued exceeded the number of persons who actually applied for naturalization papers, and also to show that large numbers of names from the books of the court were fictitious and that the addresses given had no existence and frequently represented vacant lots and stone yards.

An Unblemished Complexion.

Is like a sweet wild, "an excellent thing in woman." Which does not exist naturally, it may be imparted by artificial means. "GLEN'S SKIN SOAP" removes all the unpleasant effects of dirt and perspiration, obliterating blotches, tan and all other discolorations of the skin; more than this, it gives a healthy tint to the cheeks, and a lustrous whiteness and softness to the neck and arms. It is the fashionable cosmetic at the watering places, and as science vouches for its harmlessness, no lady need be afraid to use it. Beware of counterfeits. See that "G. N. CARPENTON, Proprietor," is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by druggists at 25 cents; three cakes 60 cents. A fitting toilet accompaniment is "GLEN'S INSTANTANEOUS HAIR DYE," which changes gray or any objectionable color to a beautiful black or brown in the space of a few minutes, and contains no mineral poison.
